Howman Out on Bail.

Yesterday Howard Baumann, or Bowman, was released from jail by United States Commissioner Campbell, on giving $1,000 bail. He is the young man accused of using the mails to blackmail Mr. P. Bachmann, the father of James Bachmann, who is under indictment for procuring an abortion.

Bishop Donahue's Consecration.

Bishop-elect P. J. Donahue writes to the INTELLIGENCER that he has caused invitations to be sent to all the clergy of this diocese to attend his consecration as bishop in the cathedral at Baltimore on April 8, but inasmuch as he may have overlooked the name of some reverend gentleman, he asks the paper to announce by his authority that all are cordially invited.

Easter Exhibits.

All the drug stores and many others have attractive exhibits of Easter novelties in their show windows. George Ebeling, of South Market street, has a novel show—a number of chickens colored with brilliant head dyes, giving them the appearance of tropical birds. John Coleman, of South Charline street, also has an attractive exhibit, and several rabbits which attract attention.

Death of William Digby.

Pittsburgh papers contain the announcement of the death of William Digby, jr., of that city, father of Mr. George Digby, of Booth & Digby, of this city. He was a tailor, and in spite of his studious habits, was one of the best known old men in Pittsburgh. He was born in London, Eng., sixty-six years ago, but lived in Allegheny county all but the first year of his life. His father was a tailor, as was his grandfather. As a musician and poet he was much celebrated locally. The Times says of him. He had the poet's proverbial luck. In 1888 he published a volume called "Verses," which contained his choicest productions. But he did not push the sale, and generously distributed them among his friends, who appreciate their merit. In music Mr. Digby was best known as a violinist. For ten years he had been preceptor of the Second Presbyterian Church choir and was a member of the congregation. Wednesday night he fulfilled his duties at the prayer service. His death was first in a family of a wife and nine children.

SEVERAL BOY THIEVES

In Trouble down at Moundsville—Two Sent to Jail.

Three boys from Bellaire, M. Welton, Lee Pettit and a boy named Kittellwell stole a skiff from the Denwood landing and proceeded down the river. Word was sent down to different points below to capture them, and when they came to Sistersville, City Marshal G. S. Kidd was on the lookout for them and caught them were brought up on the Ohio River 2:30 train yesterday afternoon to Moundsville, where a preliminary trial was given them before Justice of the Peace Mann, who found Welton and Pettit guilty and put them under $500 bond. They couldn't give the necessary bond and were committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Wednesday evening two boys from Bellaire, employed by Street Paving Contractor Charles Rosser, were arrested, charged with stealing a watch from Randolph Cox, and tried before Justice Criswell, at Moundsville. One was discharged, and the other, named William Hines, was committed to jail in default of $50 bail. The boy's parents went down yesterday afternoon and asked for a hearing before the judge of the court, which was granted, and the judge discharged him. The father said it was then just four hours since he had heard that his boy was in jail. The boy and parents went home happy.

The Modern Way commends itself to the well-formed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs.

READY-MADE CLOTHES—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

Hubisms.

ONE PRICE, the Lowest.

ONE PURPOSE, the People's Confidence.

The Hub of to-day is the ambitious push of the Hub of yesterday.

The Hub's methods are trade getters.

They are trade holders.

The Hub's prices are the lowest prices.

The Hub's qualities are the best qualities.

The Hub's variety is the greatest.

The Hub's satisfaction is founded on perfection.

The Hub is at the front, because the popular taste is touched, because the people are the best served there.

Are you a patron of the great house of progression?

To be is to be faultlessly dressed.

Get your critical glasses on and let us show you our line of Men's Suits. We are opening out for spring wear. We don't care who passes judgment on them. They're up to the highest point of perfection. Take our advice and don't think of having one made to order with such a collection to be suited from.

You're not hard to fit, and that's the only plea that the custom shops now use to argue you over, but it won't hold water with our stock. We've got more'n fifteen hundred suits on our tables, and still receiving more. You'll see all the new effects of fashion and fabric, with more quality stowed away to each grade, than ever we could put there before.
